

The Benefice of Tetbury, Beverstone, Long Newton and Shipton Moyne

Quiz for Summer 2022

Summertime is a great time to see animals in the wild or a trip to the zoo. So, this quiz celebrates the diversity of animal types and species from around the world. From large to small, some here in the British Isles but many elsewhere in the world. They are all vertebrates but no birds or fish.

Carnival of the Animals

1. One was lost at Paddington Station.....
2. Close to southern heap.....
3. This one never forgets.....
4. Maybe a burglar.....
5. Oil is a mess in front of headland.....
6. Arrived then left.....
7. Junior scout.....
8. Lunar knitwear.....
9. Turn around love.....
10. Rhymes with a type of vehicle fuel.....
11. Twisted reed.....
12. Craftsman loses his head.....
13. Great ones for winter storage.....
14. Early in the week with lock partner.....
15. 101 no just one.....
16. Craftily outwit.....
17. Underground spy.....
18. Does this one mimic.....
19. A wearisome person.....
20. Payment first before the pole gets mixed.....
21. Saint Cereal.....
22. Only puss we hear.....
23. Saucepan damaged only a bit.....
24. Pester and worry.....
25. Mixed up tar.....
26. A bad bug.....
27. De-stoned small village near Cirencester.....
28. Elegant and tall.....
29. Computer tool.....
30. Pedestrians' favourite.....
31. Boundary with road bully.....
32. Clear mint.....
33. Sounds like parts of a necklace support.....
34. March boxer.....
35. Holy lifter.....
36. Man's best friend.....
37. Do you remember these in the petrol tank.....
38. In the hole.....
39. Late evening echoes.....
40. A dent in a brick.....

Good luck!

Michael Bailey